WOMEN IN THE AMARILLO POLICE DEPARTMENT

Women in the Amarillo Police Department play a vital role in policing and they are highly valued employees. They provide strong attributes that make them invaluable team players in the Department. There are many instances in policing where experience has shown it is advantageous to have female officers involved.

There are female officers in a variety of assignments and female officers hold a variety of ranks within the APD. There are many career opportunities for women in the APD and the Department recognizes, utilizes and respects the diversity of all of its employees.

Throughout history women have broken barriers in law enforcement and they continue to break barriers today as well. Female officers work side by side with their male counterparts every day making sure their community is safe for everyone living and working in the City. The desire to protect and serve their community and the need to see that justice prevails are characteristics found in both male and female officers in the APD. Take pride in a career with a Department that takes pride in you. Apply today!!
